TWELVE PAGES—THREE CENTS

Lynden Smith Fund Probe Is Launched

SUBPOENAS FOR LIEBERMAN AND CASSIDY ISSUED

Records, Accounts Of Late Official Are Ordered Produced

Springfield, Ill., May 8.—(P)—An investigation of Democratic campaign fund collections by P. Lynden Smith, state public works director who was found dead in a hospital bathtub March 9, was launched today by the house committee probing state finances.

Rep. Clinton Searle of Rock Island, chairman of the Republican-controlled committee, issued subpoenas for Attorney General John E. Cassidy and Chief Highway Engineer Ernest Lieberman directing them to produce Smith's personal records and highway department accounts of dealings with road contractors at hearings next week.

The surprise move to dig into Democratic campaign financing—Smith was chief controller of the party war chest during the four years before his death—came a few hours after the legislature adjourned for a two-week recess, leaving the Searle committee free to investigate unhampered.

In a statement, Representative Searle said the committee would "investigate rapidly and thoroughly the financial conditions and the financial scandals existing in our state government in Illinois."

The subpoena for Attorney General Cassidy called on him to produce, at a hearing Wednesday, books and records "which he held in connection with his purported investigation of the estate of the said P. Lynden Smith, including 'the little black book,' and all records pertaining to collections from contractors doing business with the State of Illinois which he has in his possession."

Cassidy dispatched inheritance tax investigators to open Smith's safe after the public works director was found dead and reported that Smith had deposited $27,000 in Democratic campaign funds in his private business bank account.

Smith, who was Governor Horner's campaign manager in 1926 and 1928, made "five or six" deposits of campaign funds and still owed $17,381.10 when he died. Cassidy said a coroner's jury decided Smith committed suicide "while mentally deranged."

Funds Unclaimed
Cassidy at the time he disclosed the debt, said Smith's family had agreed to repay the $17,381.10 but to date no Democratic leader or agency has claimed the funds.

Reports that Smith left a "little black book" containing campaign fund information cropped up after his death but Rep. Searle today declined to say whether he had any definite knowledge of the record.

The investigating committee was created by the Illinois house to delve into state finances with a view toward finding funds to meet the cost of increased old age pensions.

The subpoena for Lieberman, who as chief highway engineer was Director of Smith's principal subordinate and adviser, called for "reports of your investigations of collusive pavement bids, labor racketeering and other influences increasing the cost of highway to the taxpayers."

Chairman Searle, an opponent of Horner administration policies, declined to disclose on what basis the subpoenas were issued but produced a statement in which he accused State Senator Harold G. Ward of Chicago, senate Democratic floor leader, of "attempting to kill or cripple the committee" by seeking a reduction in expenses for the investigation.

MOTIVE LACKING IN MYSTERIOUS ALLYN SLAYING

Famed Authority On Pure Foods Killed In His Home

Westfield, Mass., May 8.—(P)—Science-skilled investigators sought an opening lead tonight in the baffling slaying of 66-year-old Professor Lewis B. Allyn, famed pure food authority, whose life among test tubes and laboratory slides was snuffed out last night by bullets fired at close range.

At least temporarily puzzled as to the motive for the killing, crack state detectives called in ballistics experts, chemists and pathologists to aid in the hunt for the assailant, who apparently called the quiet grey-haired scientist to the vestibule of his home and then fired four shots at him from a .22 calibre automatic.

Similar slayings
Details of his death were strikingly similar to the still unsolved slaying of Dr. Elliott Spear, youthful headmaster of Mount Vernon School for Boys, five years ago. In Northfield, 40 miles from this small city, Spear was reading in his library when a shotgun blast through a window killed him.

Mrs. Allyn told police she heard indistinct voices, then the shots, and reached her husband's side in time to hear him gasp: "Call the police. Call the police."

District Attorney Thomas F. Moriarty in response to questions, said he attached "no significance at all" to unofficial reports that Allyn had been doing research work for the Federal Bureau of Investigation. In Boston, the FBI denied reports that Allyn had been so engaged.

Immediate police efforts were directed toward a search for the death weapon. A rifle and a pistol, both of .22 calibre, owned by Allyn, were turned over to ballistics experts for examination, but there was no indication either had been fired recently.

Agriculture Bill's Increases Debated By House Members

Rep. Woodrum Taxes Congress With Financial Irresponsibility

Washington, May 8.—(P)—Rep. Woodrum (D-Va.) taxed congress with "a record for financial irresponsibility" today as the house considered senate increases of some $300,000,000 in the agriculture bill while Rep. Cannon (D-Mo.) appealed for "a fair wage" on the farm.

Woodrum told the house that failure of congress to enact new taxes or to economize led to only one conclusion: "Bills Incurred."

"I believe that it will have established a record for financial irresponsibility that has never been established since the founding of our government. I believe that it is our duty before we adjourn to provide the funds to pay the bills we incur for the American people during the next fiscal year."

Because of prolonged controversy over less important items, the house did not get to the major senate increases of $212,000,000 for parity payments, $85,000,000 for disposal of surplus farm crops and $50,000,000 in RFC loans for farm tenancy.

Over the objections of appropriations committee leaders, the house voted 200 to 174 to accept a $203,000,000 senate increase for cooperative agricultural extension work. But it refused to agree to another $10,000,000 hike in an appropriation of $814,380 for animal husbandry investigation and experiments.

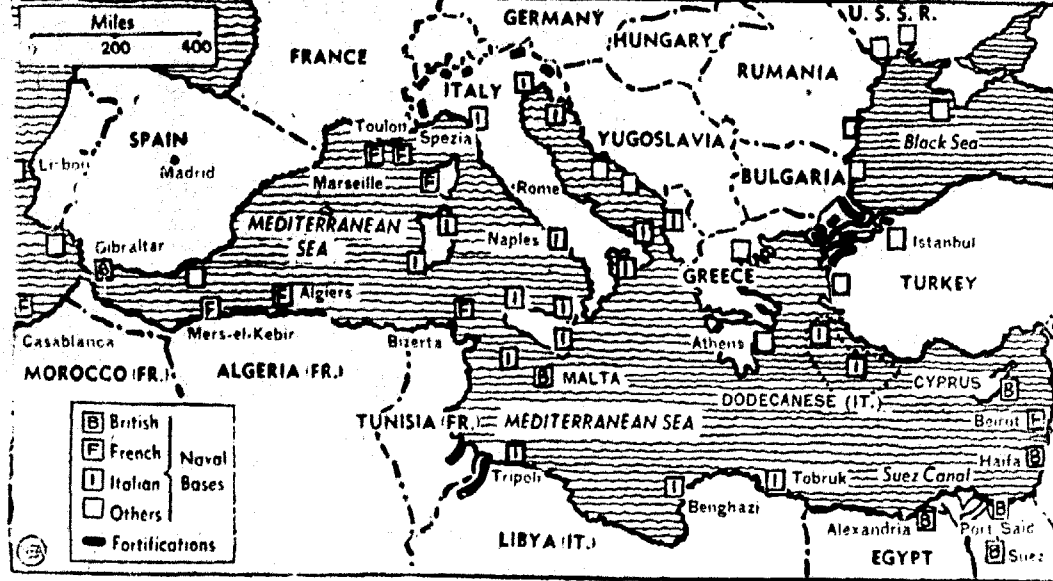

State's Peach Crop Will Be Very Small

Springfield, Ill., May 8.—(P)—Director J. H. Lloyd of the state department of agriculture estimated today Illinois' peach crop this year would be "less than ten per cent" as large as last year's production of over two million bushels.

Extremely cold weather in January and February, Lloyd said, would make the 1940 crop the smallest in years. He said southern Illinois orchardists were turning to vegetable growing to make up for the loss of fruit revenue.

Federal and state departments of agriculture placed last year's peach crop in Illinois at 2,057,000 bushels and valued it at $1,851,000.

Strategic Lineup of Naval Might in Mediterranean

Hive of naval bases and warship activity is the Mediterranean Sea, one-time Mare Nostrum of ancient Rome. Into it have sailed major units of the British and French fleets to meet any threat of war from modern Italy.

Yugoslav Military Mission To Leave Shortly For Moscow

Will Hold Military Talks With Soviets; Britain And France Offer Aid In Effort to Seal Anti-Nazi Alliance

Budapest, May 8.—(Thursday)—(P)—It was learned authoritatively early today that a Yugoslav military mission headed by General Vojin Maksimovic, inspector of the national defense, will leave Belgrade shortly for Moscow to hold military talks with Soviet Russian officials.

Authoritative sources in Belgrade made this disclosure shortly after it was reported in diplomatic quarters that Britain and France were offering Yugoslavia the assistance of troops, air forces and naval forces.

HOLLAND CRISIS IS TERMED JUST DEFENSES' TEST

Amsterdam Newspaper Says Sensation Not Justified

Amsterdam, May 8.—(P)—Influential Netherlands commentators advanced the suggestion tonight that the elaborate precautionary steps taken by the army and navy within the last 24 hours was a move by the high command to test the nation's defenses.

These were coupled with the declaration of the widely read Amsterdam newspaper De Telegraaf that although the international situation was dangerous the sensation caused by the government's measures was "not justified."

The Dutch army at present, the newspaper pointed out, is more fully mobilized than at any time in history and it is only logical that the authorities should make a test of their readiness.

No Further Measures
There were no further measures announced since last night when a partial "blackout" of communications was enforced after all leaves were cancelled.

With the nation's armed forces swelled to some 400,000 men, it was recalled that leaves were cancelled approximately 80 times during the World War whereas this is only the fourth time in eight months that such action has been taken in the present conflict.

Outgoing telephone calls were suspended again tonight as they were last night, from 10 p. m. to 8 a. m. (1:40 a. m. CST.)

Other measures included an order barring ships from inland waterways and the posting of guards around all public buildings in Amsterdam and the Hague.

Berlin authorities issued a blanket denial of a report from a reliable source in New York last night that two columns of German troops were converging on the Netherlands frontier.

Prohibition Party Keynote

Chicago, May 8.—(P)—A call to "Christian and patriotic forces" to unite in a political organization formed the keynote of the Prohibition party's national convention today.

Claude A. Watson of Los Angeles, the keynote speaker, told representatives of 25 states at the opening session: "The Prohibition party makes an appeal for the realignment of the voters in a political party committed to Christian ethics and morality in government to maintain this nation as a Christian nation."

DISMISSES SUIT TO PUT STELLE IN AS GOVERNOR

Says McLean Court Is Lacking In Proper Jurisdiction

Bloomington, Ill., May 8.—(P)—A suit to compel Gov. John Steller to assume the duties of the governor of Illinois was dismissed today by Circuit Judge William C. Radford.

The jurist ruled that "the McLean County Circuit Court lacks jurisdiction."

The litigation began on April 11, when Attorney John D. Vosnos filed a petition for a writ of mandamus in behalf of James McComb, a Chicago taxpayer. The plaintiff charged that Gov. Henry Horner was incapacitated by an extended illness and contended that the law required the lieutenant governor to take over the chief executive's post.

Cassidy's Argument
Judge Radford took cognizance of Attorney General John E. Cassidy's recent argument that the case was outside of the court's jurisdiction. At the same time he asserted that he was "unable to concur" in McComb's contention that any lawsuit affecting the governorship could be filed in any county because the governor was the governor of all counties.

Attorney Vosnos told reporters in Chicago that he would take immediate steps to revive the case. He announced that he would request the judge to vacate his order and seek to have the suit transferred to "the proper county"—Hamilton county, where Steller maintains his legal residence.

But the Crook, Vice-Premier Vladimir Mack, said on April 24 that he would request the judge to vacate his order and seek to have the suit transferred to "the proper county"—Hamilton county, where Steller maintains his legal residence.

It was believed here that the military link might follow conclusion of political talks.

Oscar G. Mayer Not Trustee Candidate

Chicago, May 8.—(P)—Oscar G. Mayer, Chicago packer and former president of the Chicago Association of Commerce, tonight said that he would not be a candidate for re-election as a member of the board of trustees of the University of Illinois.

Mayer, who was elected to the six-year term as a trustee in the 1934 election, said he had decided not to seek re-election because of "pressure of personal business." He added that he "greatly enjoyed the experience of serving on the board and considers it a fine opportunity to render a public service."

Mayer, who was elected to the board as a Democratic candidate, said he had advised fellow trustees of his decision.

Terms of two other Democratic members of the nine-man board expired this year. Harold A. Pogue of Decatur has announced that he would seek re-election. The third member, Mrs. Glenn E. Plumb of Chicago, has not announced her intention. She is in Florida.

The terms of the nine elected members are staggered so that the terms of three expire every two years.

CHICAGOAN CHAIRMAN OF DEMOS STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

NAME SULLIVAN SUCCESSOR TO HARRY HERSHEY

Springfield, Ill., May 8.—(P)—The Democratic State Central Committee departed from long custom today by electing as chairman a Chicago member, 39-year-old Arthur A. Sullivan.

Sullivan, attorney for the Cook County Democratic organization, was chosen without opposition to succeed Harry B. Hershey of Taylorville, the party nominee for governor. It was the first time in more than 30 years that a Chicagoan was named to head the committee.

A strongly worded resolution favoring a third term for President Roosevelt was adopted by the committee whose members also recommended the reelection of Patrick A. Nash of Chicago, veteran Cook county party leader, as Democratic national committeeman for Illinois. The national committeeman is chosen by the state delegation to the party national convention.

Caucus Agreement
Meeting in an atmosphere of apparent harmony, Chicago and downstate committeemen agreed upon Sullivan for the chairmanship in a caucus preceding the formal organization session. The Chicagoan was the choice of the Kelly-Nash organization bloc which held voting control of the committee.

John J. Hamilton of East St. Louis state director of registration and education in Governor's cabinet, was elected first vice-chairman; John Small of Harrisburg second vice-chairman and Sherwood Dixon of Dixon third vice chairman.

Re-elected Secretary Joseph E. Knight of Dow and Treasurer Ludwig D. Schreiber of Chicago. The committee chose Milton and Forsyth of Mt. Vernon, a new member, as assistant secretary and Patrick G. McGuire of Chicago, as marshal.

Chairman Sullivan immediately announced the reappointment of Miss Blanche Fritz, Bridgeport, as Democratic state chairwoman.

The only absentee at the session was Ray D. Stout, of Glenview, newly elected committeeman who was downstate campaign manager for the "insurgent" Stelle-Barrett-Adamowski ticket in the recent primary. Earlier it had been reported Stout might be tendered a committee office as a harmony move.

The committee failed to set a date for the Democratic state convention, leaving the choice to Chairman Sullivan who said the rally probably would be held in mid-June in Springfield.

STRIKE AT ST. LOUIS DAIRY ENDS QUICKLY

St. Louis, May 8.—(P)—A strike of 110 union workers at the Quality Dairy tied up milk deliveries to more than 30,000 customers for seven hours today.

A temporary settlement reached after noon ended the walkout and drivers started making their morning rounds.

The union charged the company violated provisions of its contract regarding overtime pay. The company denied the charge and accused the union of calling the strike without warning.

ROBERT M. HARPER

Springfield, Ill., May 8.—(P)—Governor Horner's office late today announced the appointment of Robert M. Harper, East Moline newspaper publisher and former state senator, to the Illinois Commerce Commission to succeed the late Andrew Olson of Moline.

Harper represented the 33rd District, in the State Senate from 1924 to 1928 and since then has been a member of the Board of Review of the Division of Unemployment Compensation.

Chamberlain Wins Vote In Commons

Reich Calling Added Troops To The Colors

Berlin, May 8.—(P)—Official German quarters, in the face of general European anxiety, tonight assured all inquirers that Germany is prepared to strike decisively wherever and whenever her enemies aim a blow.

"We reveal no secret," authorized sources said, "what we repeat that Germany is prepared on all fronts."

Asked whether this meant the Netherlands frontier also, they replied: "Obviously."

Summons To Colors
Hand in hand with these verbal assurances went wholesale summonses to the colors.

All ages seemed involved. Cases of reservists over 50 years of age have been noticed in the past days.

In the actual fighting, the high command reported that German airmen had successfully raided marching columns of allied troops near Narvik, far-north Norwegian, ore port where the allies are besieging a German force. One English pursuit plane was reported shot down.

The high command also said two cruisers were hit by bombs in another Nazi air attack on enemy naval vessels outside of Narvik.

On the western front, the high command reported, a enemy attack south of Saarlautern had been repulsed with heavy losses for the enemy.

BODY RECOVERED

Hayward, Wis., May 8.—(P)—The body of Marshall W. Schoewe of Milwaukee, second member of a CCC quartet from Camp Sawyer who last was seen on Moose Lake on April 30, was recovered today. The body was found 100 yards from the place where the body of Edward J. Milon of Wau-pun, Wis., was recovered last Saturday.

Searchers said they would continue dragging the lake for the bodies of the other two members of the camp, Robert Brumitt of Bradley, Ill., and Harris Matheson of Chicago.

GOVERNMENT'S POSITION STILL IS PRECARIOUS

Prime Minister Gets 81 Vote Margin; 130 Absent

London, May 8.—(P)—Neville Chamberlain remained the master of Britain's war government by the narrow margin of 81 votes tonight after beating off for the moment the thunder of criticism which in two days of historic House of Commons debate had threatened his ministry for its surrender in central and southern Norway.

The government carried a vote on a question of confidence at conclusion of First Lord of the Admiralty Winston Churchill's calm, firm, almost deprecatory speech, by 281 Tory votes to 200 for the combined opposition.

The Conservatives' position was clouded, however, by the 134 absences or abstentions, who, with those voting in opposition, make a majority of the 615 members. The British Press Association said that 130 of these were absentees.

Moreover, an estimated forty members who normally are government supporters voted with the opposition.

Daladier's Example
Some political observers speculated on whether the 71-year-old prime minister, chastened by the unexpectedly large opposition vote, might follow the example of the former premier of France, Edouard Daladier, and resign. "There was nothing, however, to confirm any such intention."

Men who had hammered at the government for two days took the vote as a victory rather than as a defeat. Jubilantly they sang, "Rule Britannia," and shouted "Go! Resign!" as the gaunt Chamberlain left the House.

Should the man who led Britain to Munich and then to war to destroy "Hitlerism," actually go to the king to resign, his most likely successor would be Churchill, Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax, possibly at the head of a government of all parties. But the political situation was in a great state of uncertainty.

National Government
One possibility, however, was that Chamberlain would now attempt to form a national government of all parties, inviting Labor and Liberals to take portfolios in his cabinet.

The Labor Party convention on Monday may decide to reverse its decision not to participate in the government.

It was evident the opposition expects Chamberlain—a picture of weariness at the end of the seven-hour tumult—at least to reconstruct his cabinet to satisfy their scornful condemnations of "muddling."

Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Samuel Hoare, air minister, Oliver Stanley, secretary of war, and Leslie Burgin, supply minister, were members mentioned as likely to go.

A day of drama and excitement such as ancient Westminster has not witnessed in years was capped when Churchill, a Tory "rebel" who fired many a barb at the Chamberlain escutcheon in the days of appeasement, rose to make the closing speech for the government.

Trondheim Fjord
Accepting "full responsibility" for the admiralty's decision not to attempt to force Trondheim 21c—a blow which Admiral of the Fleet Sir Roger Keyes yesterday said would have left Adolf Hitler holding jostling cards in Norway—Churchill said Britain had 12,000 troops facing 120,000 Germans and had the choice of getting them cut or "leaving them to be destroyed."

Britain's surface navy would have invited losses amounting to "disaster" from the German air fleet, he said, had an attempt been made to cut German communications to Norway in the Skagerrak.

Moreover, he warned, British inferiority in the number of war planes "will condemn us for some time to come to a great deal of difficulty and suffering and danger which we must endure with firmness until more favorable conditions can be established—as they assuredly will be."

At no time in the last war, he declared ominously, was Britain in as great peril as today.

Mild Statement
His surprisingly mild statement, however, turned into a sort of cat and dog fight when the first lord, chin jutting out, angrily shouted at hecklers, "You dare not listen to argument," and added the most devastating rejoinder known to British politics:

"It's not British!"

Reassuringly, he said the British now had the Narvik airport, and that "we now fight for Narvik."

He stressed the perils of naval occupations in waters teeming with submarines and destroyers each with its "bouquet of torpedoes" and dominated by German aircraft operating from nearby bases.

The Prime Didn't Take

The so-called "economy drive" in Congress, as the cynics expected, has shot its feeble bolt. Many of the gentlemen of Capitol Hill are attempting to outdo each other in spending the taxpayers' money. For this is a general election year, and it is popular political belief that money makes the mare go when it comes to getting votes.

That may be practical sounding politics, but it is a suicidal economic doctrine. At the moment the nation is only $2,500,000,000 short of reaching the present federal debt limit of $45,000,000,000. In other words, as a people, we are some $42,500,000,000 in the hole—and that doesn't include federal guaranteed obligations, which run into several billions more.

The bulk of that debt has been created since the depression started, despite the highest peace-time taxes in our history. We've primed the pump until the golden flood ran over—but the prime didn't take. It is obvious to anyone that the desired recovery has not been produced.

And still Congress goes on spending in the same old way. The treasury still pays out close to dollars for every dollar taken in, charging the unpaid balance to the debt. And the outlook for a sane and solvent future becomes steadily more bleak.

There is a cure for this—a cure that can come only from the people. When the voters are no longer enticed by a lavish deficit spending; when they stop looking to Washington as the source of all financial blessings; when they turn back to local self-government and self-rule, as against federal paternalism; when they let it be decisively known that they are weary of having their elected representatives spend them and their children's children

Safety For Motherhood

Figures just announced by the Illinois State Medical Society indicate that the maternal death rate in Illinois is now among the lowest in the United States and lower than in most foreign countries.

Had the rate which prevailed in 1920 again prevailed, there would have been 600 more maternal deaths in Illinois in 1939 than actually occurred, and 700 more would have taken place if the 1930 death rate had prevailed last year.

On the near approach of the annual observance of Mother's day, these figures should be a source of gratification for Illinois families, for they indicate that the mothers of Illinois are observing in an adequate and sensible way the means which modern science has provided for avoiding the perils of childbirth.

Real Value of Timber

Farmers in this area are given a timely warning about the real value of their timber by agricultural experts of the University of Illinois. "Be careful and don't underse!" is the gist of that warning.

The U. of I. authorities reveal that of all the 60 or more crops and products sold from Illinois farms timber probably is the most undersold. All too often material cut from the 3 million acres of remaining woodland in the state is sold for only a fraction of its real value because many farmers know little about marketing methods of wood.

One example is cited wherein an Illinois farmer wrote to the university saying: "I have a 15-acre woods which I have just let grow for about 30 years, thinking it would increase in value. A timber buyer tried to buy it and showed me that it was completely infested with a disease. It is white oak timber. He made the statement that it would all be dead in three years."

The university men checked this woods and found the trees in good condition; what the farmer was told was a disease was only normal shedding of bark. The owner had been offered only $450 for all trees on 15 acres, which was much too low a price. After the university's check-up, he naturally decided not to sell. The good trees will be left standing and inferior ones cut to make a new crib.

There are two things any owner of timber should do to be sure of getting a fair price: make an estimate of how many trees of each variety he has for sale, then get in touch with the consumers of the different species in order to get bids from as many as possible. Don't underestimate the value of timber crops; there aren't many trees left in Illinois.

SMALL TALK

Good morning. Twelve-year-old Jack Kilver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus

Kilver, deserves every kind of praise in the books—and then some. Young Jack saved the life of a 17-months-old baby, Merle Edward Burton. You read the story in the papers of a day or two ago. The child had toddled to a neighbor's house in the Pishah vicinity, and had somehow fallen into a tub of water. Kilver happened by, saw two legs sticking out of the tub, pulled the already unconscious infant from the water, and successfully administered artificial respiration. Today Merle Edward is feeling fit and raring to go, thanks to the quick thinking of Mr. Kilver.

Jack attributes his feat to his Boy Scout training. We agree that the Boy Scout training is a fine and marvelous thing. But, the real test of a person's courage and intelligence comes in applying such training in an actual emergency—in this case, an emergency in which a life was in danger.

It is a tribute to anyone's character when that person can face an emergency with clear thinking and the ability to do the right thing at the right time. When the person is only 12 years old, the tribute is doubled. Incidentally, a boy cannot become a Boy Scout until he is 12. Jack has certainly absorbed a lot in a short time. We take our hat off to him.

See that the "loop" streets (you know, the ones enclosed by Jacksonville's elevated railroad) may be widened and paved. The old wooden blocks have been in service for a number of years, a very great number of years, and the city fathers are contemplating replacing them with nice, new, 1940 model paving. That would be a very worthy improvement upon the fair face of Jacksonville. The wood blocks have a tendency to get a bit out of line, come a rainstorm.

You have noticed it during the past winter. (Notice our confidence and optimism—"past winter"! The melting snows gave the wood a thorough wetting, and the result was that crossing a street was like taking a walk on a roller-coaster track. We never took a walk on a roller-coaster track, but there have been a couple of times when we would have been very happy to get out and walk.

Anyway, the wooden blocks may be making their farewell appearance. Haven't even carved our initials on them yet.

If you see a stop-light walking down the street, it will probably be our nose, which was a trifle reddened as a result of our first session of tennis. Speaking of tennis, the Illinois College team has had a couple of hard blows this year. Jim Lacey, a freshman at I. C. and one of the city's best players, threw his right shoulder out of place and was forbidden to play for the remainder of the season. Throwing one's shoulder out of place is a very bad habit to acquire, as we can personally testify, so we hope Jim has no more trouble.

The next thing that happened was an accident in a "chem lab." The whoozis got a little too near the whistles, and Carl Black was a little too near to both of them. Bud, a mainstay of the tennis team and, incidentally, a member of Phi Beta Kappa, sustained burns on his hands that will keep him on the sidelines for the rest of the spring.

Illness of Board Member Postpones Vote on Chairman

Jersey County Supervisors Adjourn Until May 20; Deadlock Unbroken

Jerseyville—The illness of August F. Mittel, one of the members of the disapproving Board of Supervisors of Jersey County, placed a new angle on the organization session which Monday entered its third week deadlock on the selection of a Chairman for their body.

The balloting had been evenly divided up to that time, six voting on each candidate placed in nomination for the post by each side. Saturday evening Mittel became quite ill and his absence Monday would have thrown the scales out of balance if a vote had been taken at that time.

When ten o'clock, the appointed hour for convening arrived Monday only six supervisors were present. As seven are necessary for a quorum no ballots could be cast. The roll was called and a motion made to adjourn until 1:30 that afternoon.

Those present at the session were: R. L. Van Fossen, Robert Schwick-

Fortunately, the Blueboys still have a strong team, thanks to a good bunch of freshmen. By the way, the annual Journal-Courier tournament generally comes along in June sometime. Better start warming up.

See that the merchants are preparing their graduation lines. That word "line" might refer to a couple of things. It might refer to the merchandise, and it might refer to the sales talk. Tsk, tsk, what a horrible thought. Shame on us for twenty minutes. Anyway, the national ads in the big magazines are full of capped and gown-wearing beauties eyeing a sample of the advertiser's product. The sample may be anything from a watch, some kind which the grad's family has undoubtedly worn for three generations, to a new car, which has perhaps been driven for three generations. If we ever had a youngster, and he graduates from college and wants a car for a graduation present, that's the kind he will probably get.

The end is in sight—the end of the copy paper—we'll draw to a close, rather suddenly.

See you tomorrow.

hard, George Kruse, Herschel Medford, Ed. Rintoul and John W. Varney.

The Supervisors absent from the meeting were: August Mittel, Chester Ruyke, Gus Heneghan, Ed. LeFalve, Mike Costello, and Wm. J. Groppell.

When the meeting was called to order Monday afternoon by the temporary chairman, County Clerk Frank Seago, the same six were present, and the same six absent. Motion was made and carried that the Board adjourn until ten o'clock next Monday morning, May 20th. As Mittel's illness is expected to be of short duration, it was felt he would have recovered by Monday and could take his place on the Board.

SERVICES MAY 12 AT PIONEER PARK WILL OPEN NEW SEASON

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith of Pioneer park, one mile south of Florence, Ill., announce the opening of the 1940 season of the park on Sunday, May 12, with the customary program of preaching services at 2:30 p.m.

During the past five years the park has been carrying a Sunday afternoon program of religious, educational and patriotic services during the summer months. Large and enthusiastic crowds have attended these services since their institution.

This marks the beginning of the sixth year of the annual interdenominational evangelistic meetings. All ministers are invited to attend the opening date of May 12. The sermon will be delivered by Evangelist W. N. Taylor of Milton, who is well known to all who have attended these meetings in the past.

A Mothers' day musical program will be given with special numbers. All ministers who have mothers living are asked to bring their mothers with them to these services.

A new public address system is being installed in the park this season, and will be ready for the opening day. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have generously donated the use of the park for these Sunday gatherings, which have been attended by rapidly growing numbers of an appreciative public since the work began.

Every day was a circus—for a while

The roar of the crowd... the thundering hoofs foretold the fall of mighty Rome—all because an empire went pleasure-mad and forgot what made it great. Rome went soft.

All play and no work has always spelled collapse—for a person as well as a nation. Isn't a balanced life with a fair share of work and a fair share of leisure more sensible and satisfying? Then tasks become attractive—and there's still ample time for your hobbies, family and friends. They help you readjust your perspective... revitalize your good humor... rest your mind and body. Good work puts you in a mood for recreation, and healthful re-creation puts you back in the mood for work. Your moderation puts you in balance and in harmony with progress.

New Grace Pastor Is Chapel Speaker

Rev. O. B. Enselman Addresses McMurray Students; Six Choir Seniors Sing

Reverend O. B. Enselman, newly appointed pastor of Grace Methodist church, was guest speaker Wednesday morning at the regular McMurray College Chapel service held at ten o'clock in Centenary Methodist church. Reverend Enselman spoke on the meaning of religion, giving as one definition "Religion is learning to want to do the thing that we ought to do." He emphasized the fact that "getting by" has no place in religion as religion calls for the superlative best in each one, not a competitive best, in learning to want to do the thing that they ought to do, missionaries are happily staying in foreign lands when some might have higher positions in churches of this country.

The six senior class members of the College Choir sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Forsyth as a special number. The sextette was made up of Phyllis Whittaker, Betty Zook, Ruth Stringham, Virginia Baker, Mildred Hackman and Beatrice Dismann. They were accompanied by Georgian Breder. Organ music was furnished by Miss Ruth Melville.

JERSEYVILLE BEGINS WORK THIS WEEK ON NEW LIGHT SYSTEM

Jerseyville—Work on Jerseyville's new white way will get under way this week according to George Drew, local manager of the central Illinois Public Service company for this territory.

Materials and working equipment were scheduled to arrive in Jerseyville Tuesday, and measurement of the streets began for the purpose of locating the proposed new light standards.

The new white way will call for a system of high power lamps on each side of State street through the central business district. Lamps will also be stationed on East Pearl and West Pearl streets and around the courthouse square.

The present system of street lighting in the business section will remain intact until the new lamp standards are in place and ready to function. Then the old lamp standards will be removed from the center of State street. It is planned, however, to leave the lamp standards at street intersections along State street for the purpose of controlling traffic.

Any oil-change helps "youthify" your engine...but not like this change to OIL-PLATING

You change to an OIL-PLATED engine by changing to Conoco Germ Processed oil—patented. It goes in like any oil and is priced as low as many. But a costly extra ingredient—created in the laboratory—technically described in the Patent Office—energizes this oil to couple up direct to inner engine surfaces. The connection is as close as that of any plating on your car. A plating is not in the habit of getting wiped away at speed, or of draining down at a standstill, and so that all goes for OIL-PLATING.

Then no matter how long the car stands or runs with Germ Processed oil in the crankcase, the OIL-PLATING stays PLATED UP to its top-most point in each cylinder—fastened up to its job when fluid oil-film couldn't be. You get a great fluid oil-film, mind you, with Germ Processed oil, but in addition you get OIL-PLATING... drain-proof... a fixed defense against the strong assaults of Summer wear. Helping to keep up your engine, OIL-PLATING helps to keep up the level of your Germ Processed oil. Even in an older engine its economy may remind you of "the first year." Robertson Mansion To Be Wrecked And New Duplex Built

Lewis K. Bolen Buys Landmark of Older Jacksonville For Development

Lewis K. Bolen has purchased the large John R. Robertson home and premises at the corner of West Lafayette avenue and Sandusky street. The purchase was made from J. N. Straggard of Urbana. Mr. Bolen said Wednesday that he expects to wreck the spacious old residence, once a center of Jacksonville social life.

On the site Mr. Bolen expects to erect a rock veneer two-story duplex dwelling. One lot from the Robertson tract has already been sold to Paul Davidsmeyer, who expects to build a new home to front on Sandusky street. The new duplex will also front on Sandusky. Mr. Bolen said he will occupy one of the sections of the duplex.

The Robertson home was built in the days of mansion-style houses. It has 14 or 15 rooms, two large halls, and two baths. There are nine antique fireplaces in the structure. The tract remaining after the sale of the lot to Mr. Davidsmeyer has a depth of 145 feet on Lafayette avenue and a frontage of 155 on Sandusky street. Mr. Bolen expects to sell more of the land for building sites.

The residence was occupied by members of the Robertson family until recently, when a sale of its furnishings was held. The new structure to be erected on the site will consist of two complete five-room modern homes.

Approved Highway Program Includes Woodson-Felter Job

Nine-Mile Stretch of Grading, Bridges on List Part of New Route in Morgan, Greene

Springfield, May 8.—(AP)—Approval of the Illinois federal and highway construction program involving expenditure of $9,301,382 by the U. S. Public Road Administration was announced by Ernest Lieberman, chief state highway engineer.

The 1940 government grant to Illinois was $4,650,696 as compared with $4,043,313 last year. Modernization of existing pavements will account for 28 miles of pavement reconstruction and relocation and 133 miles of pavement widening. There will be also 44 miles of new pavement, three major bridges, 61 miles of grading, 265 miles of gravel road, seven railroad grade separations, three highway separations and 61 miles of landscaping.

Included in the 61 miles of grading approved as part of the federal and state program is a nine-mile stretch of grading and bridges between Woodson and Felter in Morgan and Greene counties. This is a part of the contemplated new hard road extending from Woodson to Medora and linking U.S. 67 and State Route 111, to provide a shorter highway to St. Louis.

It is understood the state Highway Department will soon begin preparation of plans for this route, of which a portion in Greene county has already been constructed. Once the plans are submitted to the county highway department here, work can begin on the securing of dedications of right-of-way.

Last Year's Champs Are Trampled 10 to 2 On Home Course

BOWLING SCORES

Bloomington, May 8.—The Illinois College golf team continued its flawless record today when it soundly trounced Wesleyan here 10 to 2 in a match played on the Maplewood Country Club course. The Wesleyan team held the conference championship in golf last year.

The victory sent the Blueboys over the top rung, having overwhelmed last year's second place team, Bradley, in a previous match this season. The entire I. C. team turned in a brilliant score card for the day. As a team, the Blueboys registered nine birdies.

To the number one spot, Jim Buckley of I. C. triumphed over last year's individual winner in the conference, 2 and 1. Buckley shot a beautiful 77 on the par 74 course, defeating Brockway, who shot 76.

Herb Wiley, the Blueboy captain, shot a creditable 4 over par, 78, to win 3 and 2 over Christian who shot 79. The card was good for 21 points against the Wesleyan stroker.

Jack Evans, a freshman at I. C. and newcomer to the golf squad, shot 77 to win 6 and 5 over Hopkins of Wesleyan.

The lightest match of the afternoon was between Ed Osborne of I. C. and Armstrong of the host squad. The match wasn't decided until the 18th green, where they split the points, 11 each. Osborne shot 81 to 80 for Armstrong.

The team was accompanied by Coach Claude N. Beasley.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York, May 8.—(AP)—The world champion Yankees wrecked on the shoals of outpawing pitching today for the fifth consecutive game and the ninth time this season as the Cleveland Indians smacked out a 10 to 4 decision.

Al Smith, making his first start of the season, held all the New York sluggers except Joe DiMaggio and Flash Gordon in check for eight innings and then was replaced by Al Milnar, another lefthander, as a precaution when he allowed a single at the start of the ninth.

DiMaggio, playing his second game of the season, had a perfect day at bat with two singles, a walk and hit by a pitched ball, and knocked in the champs' first run in the first. Then Smith shut down on the Yanks until the eighth when Gordon homered with two on.

But by this time the Tribe had tallied all its runs, big Hal Trosky getting his sixth and seventh homers of the season and Rolfe Hemslay his third. Both had hit roundtrippers yesterday at Boston, too.

By innings: R H E Cleveland 000 134 110-10 14 0 New York 100 030 030-4 9 1 Smith, Milnar and Hemslay; Brewer, Donald and Dickey.

Athletics 10, Browns 8 Philadelphia, May 8.—(AP)—Pounding four pitchers for 13 hits, four of them by Second Baseman Benny McCoy, the Athletics outlasted the St. Louis Browns in a high scoring game today, 10 to 8.

McCoy's fourth hit, a single with the bases filled, in the eighth, played a major part in the three-run attack which gave the Athletics their margin of victory.

By innings: R H E St. Louis 101 060 401-8 11 1 Philadelphia 031 012 035-10 13 1 Kramer, Niggelme, Cox, Trotter and Swift; Sauer, Ross, Heuser and Hayes.

Chisox 6, Senators 3 Washington, May 8.—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox climbed out of the American League cellar today by beating the Washington Senators 6-3 and left the world champion Yankees in sole possession of last place.

Earl Smith and Clint Brown buried five hits for the Chicago victory while the best three Washington hurlers could do was to hold the Sox to 10 hits.

By innings: R H E Chicago 011 001 100-6 10 0 Washington 010 000 000-3 5 3 Smith, Brown and Turner; Chase, Carrasquel, Jacobs and Evans.

Red Sox 5, Detroit 4 Boston, May 8.—(AP)—The stout-hearted relief pitching of Jack Wilson enabled the Red Sox to protect their American League lead today by defeating the Detroit Tigers, 5-4.

Wilson checked off a threatening rally when he stepped into action in the seventh inning with the bases loaded and in the ninth, with the tying and winning runs on the sacks, he ended the game by fanning mighty Hank Greenberg.

By innings: R H E Detroit 000 100 201-4 11 1 Boston 000 001 000-5 12 2 Phippen, Gorsica, McKain and Tebbetts; Bagby, Wilson and Desautels.

Blueboys Are Shut-Out At Wesleyan In Second League Loss Of Season

Bloomington, May 8.—The Illinois College Blueboys, failing in practically every department, lost their second straight conference game of the season and virtually surrendered their three-year title to the Illinois College conference baseball crown today when they were shut-out by Wesleyan, 5 to 0.

The Blueboys' six hits were well scattered by the Wesleyan flinger, Grubb. Anderson, husky outfielder for Wesleyan, did most of the damage to the Blueboys, getting a walk in the second and then scoring, and crossing the plate again in the eighth after slugging a three-bagger.

Most of the Wesleyan scoring came in the second when Temple soaked the I.C. flinger, Joe Hagelauer, for a double, Anderson walking, and Kellerman knocking a two-bagger, scoring both runners. Wesleyan scored again in the third when Wehrer poked a triple and came home on Grubb's single.

Cheperak of the Blueboys got on base in the first frame with a single but was out attempting to make second. From then on until the fifth it was three up and three down for the Blueboys, with the exception of a single in the third by Joe Hagelauer. In the fifth frame two more singles by the Blueboys died on base. L.C. wound up its futile attempts at the plate with two more lone singles, once each in the seventh and eighth.

Recent Kegler Meet Highly Successful; Attracted Interest

No A. B. C. Records Broken But More Spectators Witnessed Games

Detroit, May 8.—(AP)—The 40th American Bowling Congress tournament went into the record books today as one of the most successful in the history of the congress.

While no A. B. C. scoring record was broken, the 1940 tournament set a new high in spectator interest by attracting more than 100,000 persons to see some 6,000 teams bombard the pins in the 62-day tussle which closed last night. The 30,000 bowlers came from 731 cities.

"Aside from the record entries," said Elmer Baumgartner, A. B. C. secretary, "this tournament is significant in that it established bowling as a spectators' game. Previously it was strictly a competitors' game."

More than 2,500 teams already have made reservations for the 1941 meet in St. Paul and officials said that although a record entry list might be expected it was likely that the attendance mark set here would stand for some time.

The new champions in the minor events, unchallenged by the final firing last night, are:

Doubles—Herb Freitag and Joe Sinke, Chicago, who scored 1,346 for a $600 prize and diamond-studded medals.

Singles—Ray Brown, Terre Haute, Ind. 742 for $300 and a medal.

All-events—Fred Fischer, Buffalo, N. Y., 2,001, an average of 222.3, for $200 and a medal.

The Chicago Monarchs won the team championship with a score of 3,047 in the five-man event concluded a day earlier.

A total of $241,000 in cash was divided among the prize winners in the four divisions, with 8,676 checks going to the leading scorers.

High finishers in the minor events, with their scores and prizes won, included:

Doubles—Second, Charles Furrow-Louis Semla, Springfield, Ill., 1,336, $550.

Singles—Seventh, A. Penzenstadler, Oshkosh, Wis., 715, $235; eighth, Jack Black, Fort Wayne, Ind., 714, $220.

All events—Fourth, Jack Schaefer, Hartford, Wis., 1,951, $195; Fifth, Forest Wolfe, South Bend, Ind., $125.

PICTURE OF A CAKE OF ICE WASHING SOME AIR!

Bananas and cheese, melons and fish are all good foods indeed—but not when they start imparting their strong flavors to more delicate foods—as they do in some types of refrigerators.

But there's none of this flavor-mingling, food-tainting in a modern air-conditioned ICE refrigerator. That picture up at the top is amusing, but it tells a true story. The film of water on melting ice washes out of the air the food odors which, in other types of refrigeration, are the common cause of flavor exchanges.

That's not the only advantage of this remarkable 1946 ice refrigerator by any means. To get all the facts talk to one of our Service Men or call at our showroom where the streamlined, air-conditioned ice refrigerators are on display. Learn about their amazingly low price and about our easy terms. Ask for a free trial right in your own kitchen.

Townsendites Lose In Indiana Primary

Indianapolis, May 8.—(P)—Crushed in congressional contests in the second and fourth districts, leaders of the Townsend old-age pension plan claimed tonight a minimum of 257 delegates to the Republican state convention as a result of Indiana's most apathetic primary election in a decade.

The election Tuesday apparently assured the five Democratic and seven Republican congressmen re-nomination. Major party nominees for United States senator, governor and other state offices will be selected in state conventions. Delegates to the conventions were picked Tuesday.

B. J. Brown, national representative for the Townsend old-age pension movement in Indiana and Kentucky, said scattered reports from field workers showed the movement would have "at least 257 of the 1,937 delegates to the G. O. P. state convention."

The Townsendites took a severe thrumping in the second district where Rep. Charles A. Halleck, dean of the Indiana Republican congressional delegation, defeated Frederick Landis, Jr., Logansport lawyer, by a 2 to 1 margin. Halleck's final vote was 33,806 to Landis' 16,873.

Premier Reynaud to Meet With Cabinet

Paris, May 8.—(P)—Premier Reynaud tonight called two cabinet meetings for tomorrow—one in his office and another with President Lebrun at the Elysee Palace—as the government kept a careful watch on developments in Holland.

Although a war ministry spokesman asserted that renewed rumors of a possible German invasion of Holland were only a Nazi propaganda move to keep neutral nations stirred up, other French sources expressed belief that something was afoot serious enough to cause the Netherlands to take unusual precautions.

One report published in Paris said a messenger from the German foreign ministry had left for the Hague but that it was still too early to determine whether he was carrying "an ultimatum or a more or less broad demand for supplies."

On the western front, the high command reported that a German attack was repulsed by the combined fire of artillery and a counter-attacking unit of supporting troops on the western flank.

"HELPED POCKETBOOK AS WELL AS ME," AVOWS HAPPY COAL MINER

Declares There's More Money Coming on Payday Since He's Able to Work Steadily Again—Credits Nates.

When constipation has you upset and affects your appetite, makes you lack pep, feel dull, tired and rundown, causes you to suffer with headaches, nervousness, offensive breath, excess gas and bloating after meals, or aggravates such troubles as backaches, so-called rheumatic pains, etc., why not visit Gilbert's Pharmacy, 35 South Side Square, and give Nates a chance to help you? Nates does not cure. Only nature can do that. But thousands tell how Nates so often brings wonderful relief in such conditions.

Mr. Thomas Green, Central Illinois Coal Mining Co., miner living at 1219 S. 17th St., Springfield, for instance, says:

"Yes, sir, Nates helped my pocket-book as well as me. I started on this grand medicine around the first of the year and already I've worked more days than I did all of last year! Nates, you see, has had my bowels working like a charm ever since the first, so it's really not so surprising that I'm feeling so much better.

"I haven't had one of those old tormenting headaches in over a month, and they used to put me in bed at times. I'm eating what I like without a trace of the old sourness and gas, too, and my sleep is almost 100% sounder since my kidneys don't call me up so often. Not only that, the old aches in my back and legs that used to make such torture of my work on occasion seem to have deserted me. No, sir, I don't intend to be without Nates in the house from now on!"

If you suffer like Mr. Green visit Gilbert's Pharmacy, 35 South Side Square, and learn whether Nates can help you too. Nates is also sold by most all other leading druggists everywhere.

$100 REWARD will be paid to any person who can prove that Nates is a medicine that is not genuine and true in every respect.

Most Swine Sales At 10 Cent Gains

Chicago, May 8.—(P)—Hog receipts of 10,000 in the open market and 4,500 direct to packers were less than trade requirements today and most sales were made at 10-cent higher levels, although some of the advance was lost in late deals. Fed steers and yearlings closed strong to 25 cents higher and lambs were steady to 10 lower.

Hog top of $6.10 was paid freely, most 180 to 270-pound swine selling from $5.80 to $6.65 and heavier weights down to $5.50 for 350-pound averages. Shippers took 1,000. Fresh open market receipts for tomorrow were estimated at 11,000.

Salable cattle receipts of 8,000 were 1,000 under advance estimates and contained a liberal supply of medium-weight and weight steers, which showed an advance after selling erratically earlier in the week. Extreme top of $12.75 was paid for 1,526-pound bullocks, but the market was largely from $8.75 to $11. Numerous loads weighty steers sold from $10.85 to $11.50. All other cattle classes were mostly steady.

Light fed lambs were weak to 10 cents lower but springers and sheep were steady. Good fed woolled lambs sold from $10.15 to $10.25.

New York Stock Market

New York, May 8.—(P)—Rising tendencies in today's stock market centered mainly on Steels and Aviation, together with a handful of specialties. Elsewhere many leaders exhibited considerable apathy and top gains running to 2 points or so for favorites were marked down at the close. Minor losses were well distributed.

Traders evinced much interest in the House of Commons debate on the British Norwegian reverse but apparently the only market effect was to bring in bidders for stocks that stand to profit from increased war purchases. Bethlehem Steel went into new high ground for the year. Up at one time or another were U. S. Steel, Boeing, United Aircraft, Eastman Air Lines, American Airlines, American Smelting, Loft, Bendix, Lockheed and Eastman Kodak. Some backed away at the finish.

General Motors was resistant as the company showed the best April sales to consumers for any month since April, 1937.

WHEAT SHOWS GAIN ON CHICAGO MART

Chicago, May 8.—(P)—After rapid and erratic price movements most of the session, wheat values pushed upward to net gains of more than a cent today. Corn rose almost two cents to the highest level since late in 1937.

The critical European situation, including the British government crisis and reports of the fear of war spreading into Holland and Belgium, caused much uneasiness among grain dealers and prompted some of the late short covering. The pit heard unconfirmed rumors that the United Kingdom was a buyer of U. S. corn overnight or today.

Wheat closed 1-11 cents higher than yesterday, May $1.06-1.06 1/2, July $1.05-1.04 1/2; corn 13-11 higher, May 68 1/2, July 67 1/2; oats 1 up.

SERIAL STORY

BET ON LOVE

BY CHARLES B. PARMER

COPYRIGHT, 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY, Sherry lectures on riding for a rich woman, taking money from her. She leaves a note, and a determined to quit his job. Driving across New York, Sherry is afraid they will have an accident, but Pepper Boy, but a friendly motorcycle policeman escorts them to the Holland Tunnel.

CHAPTER XII

TWO days later, when the Lone Tree Stable with its one horse rolled through the archway of Churchhill Downs, a crowd of reporters and photographers was on hand to greet Sherry.

"Safe trip, Miss Bond?" the colt okay?" They crowded around her car, asking question after question. "We've been waiting for you. You're the only girl to have an entry in the Derby this year. Who will ride?"

"Please," Sherry begged as they directed her to the stable assigned to her. "Pepper Boy must be unloaded. Let's get him into his stall, first."

Next day Sherry saw herself and Pepper Boy staring out from the front pages, as she ate breakfast in the furnished cottage she had rented for the Derby season.

When she went to the stable, Sam was rubbing down the colt. He be in fine shape, Miss Sherry."

"All right," said Sherry, "see that little black boy"—he nodded to a youngster standing near—"that be Elijah Jones. I knowed his pappy. I done got him for our exercise boy, and he's gonna take Pepper Boy out on the track now—get the kinks out of his legs."

Sherry beckoned to the boy. "Elijah, think you can hold this colt. He's yours to go."

"Yes, ma'am, I sho' can."

For a mile, Elijah held him. Then they went into a light jog under tight rein. Two furlongs went like a breeze.

Elijah came back, grinning all over. "You got a Derby colt here, Miss Sherry," he excited.

SAM was cooling Pepper Boy out when Willie Bond and Ted drove up. They had been over to the secretary's office, getting entry sheets, and had seen Pepper Boy's workout. "My word!" Willie Bond exclaimed admiringly, "The colt is in fine fettle. Now, Sherry," he turned to the girl, opened a condition book: "Here's the very race for Pepper Boy—conditions perfect for him—be a grand workout for the Derby and we'll pick up $700 or $800. Read it—the race is after tomorrow."

Sherry read the conditions: "Purse, $800. For three-year-olds which have started not more than twice since January, and which have not won 120 pounds. One mile and 70 yards."

Then she looked up at Willie Bond: "Think he can do a mile so soon?"

"He better—the Derby at a mile and a quarter will be only eight days off. It's an ideal workout for the big race. Colt's getting on edge."

She nodded. "Then enter him tomorrow. And you'd better look up a jockey."

"Look behind you!" Willie Bond interrupted. "Here's Madden!"

"Thought I better come down," the jockey said as Sherry turned, "and handle the colt in a prep race." He spoke as if it were a settled fact he was to ride Pepper Boy in the Derby.

"The very boy?" Willie Bond said quickly. "We're starting him Friday, Madden. You handle him smartly, bring him in first, and well, the Derby will be run Saturday week."

"I getcha! Got to go and check in—see you later. And I'll work him out tomorrow—just to see if he's got his speed."

"There's the boy to ride him in the Derby," Willie Bond was exulting, when another figure came around the near end of the stable: a lanky figure in scuffed riding boots, faded breeches, a torn sweater, and an out-of-shape felt hat which sat back jauntily upon his fair head.

"Shep Grant!" Sherry greeted him joyously. "So you did get all right!"

The gentleman rider grinned broadly. "I'm on my own—chucked the Bonnie Lee Stable," he added quickly. "I'm going to buy a colt—a good one—and to train and ride my own horses. Then I'll buy a breeding farm—but look here, Sherry—you going to start Pepper Boy in that Derby prep race Friday?"

Her face sobered. "Yes, Shep."

"I want to ride him."

"Sorry," Willie Bond put in quickly, before Sherry could speak. "So sorry—we've just

Local Boy Rescued After Plunge Into Cistern Wednesday

Donald Seymour Hangs Onto Pipe Until Rescuers Arrive

Donald Seymour, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Seymour, 337 Lorton street, was rescued from a cistern near his home late yesterday afternoon by Fire Chief Charles Lonergan and a youth whose name was not learned. The boy was hanging on a pipe in the cistern when the rescuers arrived. He was taken to his home and last night apparently had suffered no ill effects from his experience.

Chief Lonergan was on his way home from the local department with his wife and children, when he was hailed by a woman on Lorton street who told him that a boy had fallen into a cistern.

The chief told his wife to call the fire department and have them send an inhalator to the scene at once as he believed that resuscitation might be necessary.

Securing a ladder the chief placed it in the cistern and the youth climbed down and lifted the boy's limp body to his home nearby. While young Seymour appeared to be suffering from shock he was quickly revived by his parents.

The inhalator arrived quickly but it was not necessary to use it.

Grade School Music Festival Is Held By Grades Wednesday

The grade school music festival was given as a matinee production Wednesday afternoon, by the pupils of the first, second and third grades of the Jacksonville schools. The teachers of these grades arranged the fine program, which displayed unusual training and talent in the little folks, who appeared in solo numbers, songs and dances, given for the students of the upper grades in the high school auditorium. The festival will be presented on Thursday evening for the general public.

The colorful performance opened by the play, "Miss Mary's Garden" by the children of Washington school. The flowers of many hues depicted were protected from the caterpillars, bugs, animals and weeds by the good fairy, garden helpers, water, sunshine, sunbeams. The bee and the butterfly were also parts of the lovely scene. A chorus number ended the play in which Jerry Wood was Miss Mary. Lafayette school, in its play, "Let's Plant a Tree" centered around Mother Nature Mary Ellen Brasel with the breezes and the chorus numbers representing sunbeams, raindrops, fairies, birds, flowers, and tree-planters. As in the former group the costumes were artistically designed, in bright colors, typical of the characters, and the acting was cleverly done and the group singing, was particularly interesting.

A pageant, "The May Day in Fairyland" with Wanda Harrell, as May Queen presented a court scene, with the Queen and her courtiers entering in a procession from the back of the auditorium.

The children prettily attired and the maids carrying arm bouquets escorted the little queen to a throne on the stage where she viewed the jesters' pranks and listened to the songs, of Old King Cole, Little Boy Peep, Three Little Kittens, Little Boy Blue, and many others given as solos, and group numbers. The costumes were delightfully realistic and created a hearty response from the audience.

Reva Huns, as announcer for the Franklin school Amateur hour, filled her role "to the manner born" presenting the numbers each appearing before the microphone as called. The program opened with Dixie, followed by solo, Little Skipper, School Days, Quartette, Merry-Go-Round, Guitar solo, chorus and the finale, which was an effective ending to the festival, as the audience joined the small singers in "God Bless America."
